KEETON
KEATON

How are the Keeton or Keaton families of Jackson County related to the Keeton family of Gallia and Vinton Counties? David Keeton, a Revolutionary War soldier died in Huntington Twp., Gallia County about 1854. Is he the Keaton buried at Addenda, Jackson County? Will exchange information.

Dear Mr. Wiseman;

I read today with pleasure in the O G S Newsletter that your county chapter had a newsletter and you were willing to take inquiries.

I am assuming you follow the guide lines of the state organization so I am enclosing my query on a 3 by 5 card. Please advise me if there is a charge.

I am very happy to see the counties of southern Ohio forming chapters as that is where most of my ancestors settled in Ohio.

ANSWERED

Sincerely,

Betty J. Ferguson

Dear Miss Jignse,

Your query will appear free of charge in our next newsletter. Here are a few notes from a couple of sources in my home library that may be of interest. Not much but hopefully the newsletter will bring more information. The map shows property of G.W. Keeton in Bloomfield Twp. I own a small farm just a few miles from there. I personally have no further Keeton information. Hope this is of some use to you.

Our chapter dues are $3.00 per year at present should you desire to join and our newsletter goes to all members every two months. You may also be interested in our Jackson Co. history reprint soon to be available.

Sincerely,
 Bob Wiseman

Dear Miss Ignie,

Your query was included in our last newsletter. I have checked my files and so far I don't have any Keaton - Keaton listed. ~~But~~ Since we are getting new members all the time, we may eventually have someone that can help you.

Since I don't have you listed as a member, I would like to invite you to join our Chapter. The dues are $3.00 for single $5 couple renewable in January. Each each. We print a newsletter every other month and of course queries are free.

Sincerely,
 Mrs Alice Lauderback

I request all members to submit a 5 generation chart for my file.

Dear Mrs. Lauderback,

L'm anwering your letter this afternoon because otherwise I'll file it away and forget it.

Your town is named the same as our county seat here in Beaver County. Wonder if there vould be a connection?
Many of the Ohio settlers pasted through Beaver In fact the troops to "guard" the early settlers were trained there at old Fort McIntosh. The first standing army of the new nation.

Please find my check enclosed for the first years dues in the Jackson County Chapter of OGS, to begin in January 1982,

I'm sending another inquiry for your newsletter when ever you have the room. At least two of my family lines touched upon Jackson County soil. The Keetons and Easter lings.

If I can find the time to get my papers in order I will be joining the First Families of Ohio at the next convention. I hope to meet you at the convention.
