FREIDERIKA MARGARETTE BUEHLER

Friedericka Margarete Buehler was born in New York City, March 30, 1856, and died Aug. 28th, 1924, aged 68 years, 4 months and 28 days. She was married to Jacob Leist January 8th, 1874. To them were born seven children. Two of them, Mrs Omer Davis and Edward Leist and the husband preceded her in death.

She was only two years old when her parents moved from New York to Beaver. She often spoke of the fact that she was the oldest settler here, and could well recall the early history of this little town of which she was so proud.

She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and a charter member of the Ladies Aid Society of which she was one of its most loyal attendants. When she could entertain the Society at luncheon she was supremely happy.

No mother ever enjoyed working for her children more than she. In her home and family her greatest interest was centered. To one and all she was a devoted mother.

The duration of her illness did not exceed two weeks and she was not thought to be serious until she was stricken by apoplexy last Thursday morning. Every attention was given, but the Angel Death took her to that eternal home to which all good mothers go.

To young and to old she was familiarly known as "Mom Leist;" and by that name she will be remembered.

Five children, fifteen grandchildren, two brothers, a sister, and a host of relatives and friends bear the loss. The children are: George Leist of Columbus Mrs. Emma Becker of Beaver, Mrs. Erie Nutt of Beaver, Mrs. John Rheinfrank of Piketon and Mrs. Edwin Hays of Columbus. John Buehler of Beaver and Charles Buehler of Ceredo, W. Va. are the surviving brothers and Mrs. Kate Hoff of Newport, Ky. the sister.

"Now all of this world's toil and care are ended and we can only say, 'Sleep on dear mother, sweet thy rest, Weary with years and worn with pain Sleep on till in some happier place, We shall behold thy face again.

'Tis ours to miss thee all the years
And tender memories of thee keep
Thine, in the Lord to rest, for so
He giveth His beloved sleep.' "

The Leist family wishes to extend their deepest gratitude to the many friends and neighbors for their kindness and help during the illness and death of the mother, and for the many beautiful floral offerings

HAS OLD CLIPPING

Mrs. Kate McCurdy, in reading of Defense Day which comes next Friday, was reminded of a clipping from the Jackson Standard of May 30, 1861, which she has in her possession and values highly.

This clipping fell into the possession of a flag by Miss Pauline Johnson to the 18th Ohio Volunteer Infantry, just before they left Jackson to go to the defense of the Union. Miss Johnson later married James Chesnut, and was the mother of Mrs. McCurdy. The presentation of the flag took place just opposite where the Standard-Journal office now stands.

This clipping fell into the possession of a young man who became a member of Battery F in 1917. Mrs. McCurdy made a speech before that organization, and he was struck by the similarity between the speech of Miss Johnson as related in the old clipping, yellow from age, and the talk of Mrs. McCurdy. His surprise was great when he found that the former was Mrs. McCurdy's mother, and he gave Mrs. McCurdy the clipping.

Here it is:

"On last Friday morning, at nine o'clock the flag procured by the ladies of Jackson for the "Jackson County Guards," was presented to the Company, in front of the residence of Elihu Johnson, Esq. on Main street. The flag was presented by Miss Pauline Johnson, on behalf of the ladies of Jackson, and was received by Capt. J. J. Hoffman, on behalf of the Company, and by him handed to Ensign John Walden.

"On presenting the flag, Miss Johnson spoke as follows:

"Gentlemen of the Jackson County Guards:—In behalf of the ladies of Jackson, who are deeply interested in your welfare, and who have made the cause of this nation their cause, I have the honor of presenting to you the ensign of our country.

"Gentlemen, in accepting this banner, you virtually say that you will never suffer it to be dishonored; that it shall ever float proudly above men who are loyal to the Union of the American States; that sooner than of traitors, or marred by a foreign foe, you will give up the very best blood of your hearts!

'But remember, gentlemen, when you are engaged in the conflict on the battlefield, that there are hearts at home, swelling, and tears gushing, for you; that you are sustained by the prayers of those who have given up ALL for their country's good.

'Considering this, you will fight manfully in the cause of RIGHT—prove faithful to the end, and leave a name recorded in the archives of this glorious Nation, as of those who were found worthy to take up arms and defend the cause of their country.

'This banner, the Stars and Stripes, emblem of Union, peace and prosperity, I entrust to you, with the firm conviction that you will prove true to it, and also to those who present it.' "
