Old Business:

1. Beverly is still researching if LDS people can copy some county records that have not been done yet. She is looking to find out what records have been filmed and are online but not indexed yet.
2. We are still planning to photograph Fairmount Cemetery for our April meeting. It will be photographed in sections.
3. Ben Greenway requested info on Otis F. Lake and Silas Lake, born in Washington Township. Some info was sent to him.
4. The Lillian Jones Museum is trying to change their website to a new provider. The old one is going out of business. Megan's museum email is director@jonesmuseum.com.

New Business:

1. JCOGS wants to put Jackson High School Skeleton student newspapers online.

Announcements:

1. Membership dues are due for 2020 if you haven't already paid.
2. The Kroger Community Rewards Code is XC683.
3. Online digital newspapers – Jackson City Library web site. 1853-1925 including Hamden Express 1880-1902 and Jackson High School yearbooks.
4. JCOGS has its 40th anniversary in March 2020.

The April meeting, weather permitting, will be at Fairmount Cemetery to fill requests for FindAGrave. There are 370 photo requests and only 80 have locations noted.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:40 a. m.
