

DEATH OF SARAH LONG

Mrs. Sarah Long of Jackson who ten months ago moved to Indianapolis to live with her daughter Mrs. Eli Kain died Saturday night, age 77 years. The body was brought to Jackson Tuesday and taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Smith of Bennett Avenue. The funeral was held at 11:30 at the Smith home with Rev. Millikan officiating and Charles L. Wood in charge of the burial at Fairmount.

Mrs. Long is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Nellie Charles, Mrs. Tom Lowe, and Mrs. Ida Miller, all of Columbus and Mrs. Eli Kain of Indianapolis.

Mothers' Club Meeting

The Jackson Mothers' Club met at the home of Mrs. Harrison Shumate on South Street, Tuesday, Jan. 29th.

It being music day, the program was taken from the Grand Opera "Bohemian Girl," Mrs. Carl Summers with her usual ability played this beautiful music, and Mrs. J. W. Matthews sang several solos "A Soldier's Life, etc., followed by Mrs. W. E. Peters who sang "I dreamt I dwelt in Marble Halls and other selections, followed by Mrs. Shumate, Mrs. Peters and Mrs. Matthews singing in unison, making the afternoon a most enjoyable one, long to be remembered.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

United States Congress should prohibit immigration for the next ten years. The schools entering the league are Oak Hill, Scioto, Coalton and Bloomfield.

The preliminary debates will be held March 14, at which time the Bloomfield and Coalton schools will debate, and Scioto and Oak Hill. The negative teams being the visiting teams. The champion teams will debate on March 28th to decide the county championship.

SCHOOL MEN'S CLUB*WILL MEET FRIDAY

The Southeastern Ohio school men's club will meet Friday evening at the Rogan Hotel in Wellston. The meeting will start with a 6 o'clock dinner, after which speeches will be made by F. E. Reynolds, secretary of Ohio State Teachers' Association, W. R. Hiestand of Columbus and Dr. H. T. Huff president of Rio Grande College.

Supt. J. F. Dixon of Jackson is president of this association, C. F. Ridgely of Logan, vice president and Supt. R. A. Feree of Nelsonville, secretary and treasurer.

ACCIDENT AT PETREA

An accident which proved serious to both cars occurred on the bridge at Petrea Sunday afternoon when the car driven by Russell Barton and one driven by Oral Wills collided. Mr. Wills is the Essex agent and was driving a new Essex car which was badly damaged. A wheel and fender was torn from both cars.

forests and military reservations. The National Park-to-Park highway is about 6,000 miles in length and links together in a great circle tour Rocky Mountain, Yellowstone, Glacier, Mount Rainier, Crater Lake, Lassen Volcanic, Yosemite, General Grant, Sequoia, Zion, Grand Canyon and Mesa Verde national parks. It is termed the "master scenic highway of America." A profile of the route, showing the altitudes throughout its entire length, is printed at the bottom of the map. The National Highways association, it is announced, generously contributed funds for the printing of the map.

Franklin Twp. Woman Died Last Saturday

Mrs. Enoch Detty died last Saturday at her home in Franklin township at the age of 77 years. She has been an invalid for nearly seven years but the immediate cause of her death was pneumonia.

She is survived by her husband, three sons, Albert Detty of Franklin township, Pete Detty of Oak Hill, Will Thompson of South Solon and by two daughters, Mrs. Charles Mecum and Mrs. Sol Jones, both of Jackson, and one sister, Mrs. Sam Stiffler of Jackson.

The funeral service was held at the home of Mrs. Charles Mecum on Bennett Avenue Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Rev. E. B. White conducted the service and the burial was made in Fairmount.

Standard-Journal, Feb. 6, 1924

COALTON WOMAN PASSES AWAY

---

Mrs. Mary McWilliams died at her home in Coalton last Wednesday as the result of an attack of pneumonia. Mrs. McWilliams who is an elderly lady has been in very poor health for a long time but the attack of pneumonia hastened her death.

She is survived by her husband, Fred McWilliams; by four sons, Noble and Donald of Coalton; and Lou and Lee of Luhrig; by four daughters, Mrs. Corna Dixon and Mrs. Clara Brown of Coalton, Mrs. Ida Greene of Jasonville, Ind., and Mrs. Clemens Evans of Luhrig.

The funeral services were held Friday at two o'clock at the Missionary Baptist church with Rev. Rector officiating. The burial was made at Coalton.

---

Mrs. Payne Succumbs After Long Illness.

---

Mrs. Rhoda E. Payne died at her home on Walnut Hills last Wednesday after a lingering illness of several months. Mrs. Payne who was a native of West Virginia was 52 years of age. Mr. and Mrs. Payne with their family moved to Jackson five or six years ago and since living here have made many friends.

Mrs. Payne is survived by her husband, L. T. Payne; three sons, O. F. Payne, of Charleston, West Virginia; B. K. Payne and Fred Payne of Jackson; and two daughters, Mary V. Payne and Mrs. Myrtle Carlisle of Jackson.

The funeral service was held Friday afternoon at one o'clock at the Methodist Church with Rev. Millikan of that church conducting the service. The burial was made in Fairmount cemetery.

Standard-Journal, Feb. 6, 1924

MRS. PARRILL DIES

---

After Lingular Illness Due to Paralysis.

---

Mrs. James Stafford Parrill died last Friday morning at her home in Columbus, Ohio after a lingering illness which began with a stroke of paralysis last June. Mrs. Parrill, before her marriage Miss Melissa Castor, was born and raised in Jackson county and was nearly 61 years old at the time of her death.

She is survived by three sons, Otis Parrill of Beaver, Frank Parrill of Columbus and Forest Parrill of Springfield, and by one sister, Mrs. F. M. Cherrington of Jackson.

The funeral service and burial was held Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at Beaver Chapel.

---