

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 26, 1924

THOMAS SELECTS ALL-STAR TEAM

DAVID RIDGE

HERBERT STEPHENSON

GEORGE PETERS

The following is the lineup of the first team:

- L. E.—Peters—Jackson
- L. T.—Hobble—Oak Hill
- L. G.—Lambert—Oak Hill
- C.—Blaine—Gallipolis
- R. G.—King—Gallipolis
- R. T.—McClung—Wellston
- R. E.—Dando—Wellston
- Q.—Stephenson—Jackson
- L. H.—Kruiseamp—Wellston
- R. H.—Ridge—Jackson
- F.—Phillips—Gallipolis

This is quite an honor for the Jackson boys, but an honor justly due them.

The three Jackson boys on the first team, George Peters, Herbert Stephenson, and David Ridge, who are Seniors of the local high school, starred in the last football season, and are well-known for their athletic ability.

The three boys on the second team are Russel Barton, Ralph White and Arthur Collins.

W. E. Thomas of Wellston has selected an all-star foot-ball team from the high school players of this vicinity of last season. The Jackson team made a good showing and has three players on the first team and three on the second. Mr. Thomas has followed the teams very closely and is capable of selecting such a team.

IN MEMORY

JOHN W. SIMPSON

John W. Simpson, son of John W. and Martha E. Simpson was born in Lawrence county, Ohio, Dec. 5, 1875 and departed this life in the Uniontown Hospital, Uniontown, Pa. March 8, 1924, aged 48 years, 3 months and 3 days.

He came to Jackson county with his parents when but a child and lived with them on a farm near the city of Jackson until early manhood, he united with the U. B. church under the pastorate of the Rev. Martin, where he did his part faithfully, later removing his membership to Steubenville, Ohio, where he lived a number of years, then moving to Uniontown, Pa. where he spent the last 12 years of his life.

As a boy he was very ambitious and desirous of securing an education, but in this he was unfortunate, being the eldest of a family of 13 children he was only able to attend the public school until about the age of 15 years, but he never despaired, never quit, but always remained a scholar at home, in the church, everywhere he went, always aspiring and inspiring to higher and nobler things of this life.

When about 21 years of age he took a course in the Business College in Jackson, afterward going to Steubenville, O. where he secured a position as book-keeper for the Beach Bottom Coal Co. serving that company for more than 9 years, the latter 2 years he was superintendent of that company. Then moving to Uniontown, Pa. where he was employed as superintendent of the Evans Coal and Coke Co. at the time of his death.

His genial disposition and kindly traits of character endeared him to all who came in contact with him, and his death will be mourned by his many relatives and friends who knew and loved him.

There cannot be enough said about his many fine traits of character he lived. Manly life, one of truthfulness, devotion and sincerity, always striving for the best for himself, and wishing well and assisting others less fortunate. He was always greatly interested and formed an invaluable part of the civic life of the community in which he lived. He was also a member of the Masonic Lodge the latter half of his life.

John W. was the eldest of a family of 13 children, one sister, Mrs. Edward Saile of Columbus Ohio, and father having preceded him to that great beyond.

He leaves to mourn their loss mother, 4 sisters and 7 brothers: Mrs. C. W. Hudson, Columbus, O.; Mrs. Geo. Muchanan, Tiltonville, O.; Mrs. Ross Harris, Steubenville, O.; Mrs. Edward Freyland, Jackson, Ohio; brothers, Geo. D., James F., Edward P., Orville L., Francis C. all living in Jackson, O., Lewis E. of Tiltonville, Frederick D. of Ironton, O.

In 1905 he was united in marriage with Miss Clara Gillespie of Warrenton, Ohio who with one son John W. Jr. age 17 years, Miss Blanche, aged 13 years survives to mourn the death of a devoted and loving husband and father, to his little family he was always true, always taking great interest in the education of his children, and planning for their future welfare and happiness. A man of integrity, a Christian of worth, a loving husband and faithful friend, greatly missed, but

"To live in Hearts

We leave behind,

Is not to die."

SIMPSON IS BURIED IN STEUBENVILLE

Former Jackson Countian Passes Away in Penn- sylvania.

James Simpson of Jackson attended the funeral of his brother, John W. Simpson held at Steubenville March 11. The deceased passed away in Uniontown, Pa., March 8, following a surgical operation.

Simpson was born and raised in Jackson County, where he was one of a family of 13 children. He had been a resident of Uniontown for over 12 years, acting as superintendent of the Evans Coal and Coke Compay until the time of his death. Prior to his residence in Uniontown he resided in Steubenville, where he was superintendent of the Beech Bottom Coal Mine for two years.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Clara Gillespie Simpson, and two children, William, 17, and Blanche, 13. A peculiar coincidence is that George W. Collins, a brother-in-law of the deceased passed away at Steubenville on the Monday morning following Simpson's death.

Others in attendance at the funeral were Lou Simpson of Tiltonville, a brother of the deceased; Mrs. George Buchanan of Tiltonville, Mrs. C. W. Hudson of Columbus, and Mrs. Ross Harris of Steubenville, sisters of the deceased. All of these are former residents of Jackson County.

DAVID DAVIS DEAD

80 Years a Resident of Madison Township.

David M. Davis died at his home in Madison township near Cross Roads last Thursday night. He is 95 years of age and has been a resident of Jackson County for eighty years, coming with his parents from Wales when he was nearly fifteen years of age.

He is survived by five sons and three daughters, Richard Davis of Jackson, Morgan Davis of Jackson, David Davis of Winchester, Stephen Davis of Madison Township, William Davis of Madison Township, Mrs. Isaac Jones of Oak Hill, Mrs. William Reese of Randolph, Nebraska, and Miss Jane Davis who made her home with her father. Hayden Davis, Arthur Davis and Miss Mary Davis of this city are grandchildren of the deceased.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock at Zoar church.

TRANSFERS OF REAL ESTATE

P. M. Guthrie to Mary Guthrie, lot 38 Powell's add.

Patrick Guthrie to Annie E. Guthrie lot 13, Gallagher's add.

Elwyn P. Barnhill to Elma Grady lot E $\frac{1}{2}$  603 orig. Wellston.

Ella R. Berry to Elizabeth C. Clewers, lots 57-58, West Lawn, Jackson.

Sadie Tabet et al. to Benjamin F. Jacobs et al. pt. inlot 80, Jamestown add. Jackson.

William F. Schadel to Ethel McClain, lot 15, Milton Coal Company add. Wellston.

M. E. Beman et al. to Robert B. Williams, S.W. $\frac{1}{4}$  N.E. $\frac{1}{4}$  Madison; W $\frac{1}{2}$  N.W. $\frac{1}{4}$  N.E. $\frac{1}{4}$  N.E. $\frac{1}{4}$  Madison; W. $\frac{1}{2}$  S.W. $\frac{1}{4}$  S.E. $\frac{1}{4}$  Madison; pt. E $\frac{1}{2}$  N.E. $\frac{1}{4}$  Madison; pt. E $\frac{1}{2}$  E $\frac{1}{2}$  N.W. $\frac{1}{4}$  Madison.

Edward Helm et al. to Isaac W. Webster S.W. $\frac{1}{4}$  S.W. $\frac{1}{4}$  Liberty; N.W. $\frac{1}{4}$  N.W. $\frac{1}{4}$  S.W. $\frac{1}{4}$  N.W. $\frac{1}{4}$  Liberty.

Daniel D. Davis et al. to William H. Howells E $\frac{1}{2}$  S.W. $\frac{1}{4}$  Jefferson; pt. W $\frac{1}{2}$  S.W. $\frac{1}{4}$  Jefferson.

Maggie Edwards Hopkins et al. to E

DEVER VALLEY

The first signs of Spring was shown with plenty of rainfall.

Adam Comer is busy doing carpenter work for Henry Comer and Oscar Gilliland.

Herbert Gilliland has been engaged in baling hay in this vicinity for the past few days.

Elizabeth Burns is ill with grippe.

William Flaker has been hauling ties to South Webster, O.

Mrs. Edward Cochran and Mrs. Phillip Reed were visiting Delmar Flack and family Tuesday.

Oscar Gilliland and Esta Meldick delivered beeves to Portsmouth butchers Tuesday.

Edward Woetker and Richard Dever were transacting business in Jackson and Oak Hill Monday.

Samuel Stephenson is still confined to his home with grippe.

Orel Dever was a Portsmouth visitor recently.

D. E. Ruth who is employed at Blackfork, O. spent Sunday with home folks.