

ANDREW A. REHS ENDS LIFE SUNDAY

---

Mr. Andrew A. Rehs, aged 82 years committed suicide at his farm in Scioto township last Sunday evening by drowning in an unused well. He has been making his home with his daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Sol Wagner of South street but Sunday went to the farm to visit friends. He was missed Sunday evening and the neighborhood was called to help in a search. The body was found early Monday morning in an old well after a search lasting all night. He had stuck his cane in the ground with his hat upon it.

Mr. Rehs is survived by one son, George Rehs of Scioto township and four daughters, Mrs. Sol Wagner and Miss Sophia Rehs of Jackson and Mrs. North and Mrs. Kobinson residing out of the county. The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock at Petersburg church and the burial at Salem cemetery. Rev. E. B. White will conduct the service.

---

at Detroit Sunday afternoon at 2:00.

Standard-Journal, May 14, 1924

DIES IN WELLSTON

Patrick H. Washam, aged 84 years died at his home in Wellston last Thursday afternoon. Mr. Washam, one of Wellston's oldest citizens, was for a number of years engaged in business in Jackson. He moved to Wellston about thirty-five years ago.

He is survived by his widow and three children, P. H. Washam of Pittsburg, Albert F. Washam of Bloomfield township and Edna Washam of Wellston. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon in Wellston and the burial made in Fairmount cemetery at Jackson.

---