

MRS. RACHEL TRAGO DIES AT AGE OF 86

Well Known Jackson Woman Passes
Away at Akron
June 11.

Mrs. Rachel Trago died June 11 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clayton Silvey in Akron. The remains were brought to Jackson for burial, and funeral services were held from the Trago home on Main Street Friday afternoon, Rev. I. N. Grisso officiating. A male quartet furnished music for the service.

Mrs. Trago was well known in Jackson, having spent many years of her life in this city. The last three weeks, however, she has visited with her daughter in Akron. Three children survive. They are Mrs. Silvey, David L. Trago of this city, and John W. Trago of Buffalo, N. Y. All three were here to attend their mother's funeral. Mrs. Trago was 86 years of age.

Interment was made in Fairmount in charge of Wood & Steen, funeral directors.

Among those from out of town who attended the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Silvey of Akron; John W. Trago of Buffalo, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. George H. Trago and daughter Louise of Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. John H. Howe, daughter Levata and son Russell of Springfield; Mrs. Charles Trago and daughter Helen of Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. T. S. McLaughlin of Columbus; Mrs. Jessie Hood of Akron.

JACKSON LADY DIES MONDAY MORNING

---

Mrs. Caroline Kronk Is Called
At The Age of 74
Years.

Mrs. Caroline Kronk, aged 74, passed away in this city at an early hour Monday afternoon after a serious illness of about two weeks. She is survived by one son, Charles Kronk who has always made his home with his mother at the family home in Parkview.

The deceased was the widow of David Kronk, who preceded her in death about ten years ago. She had lived in Jackson County practically all her life, and had a great many friends.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 1 p. m., from the M. E. Church, Rev. W. C. Millikan officiating. Interment will be made in Fairmount, with Wood and Steen in charge.
