

GUY STEVENSON
DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE
—FOR—
REPRESENTATIVE
Election Nov. 4

IN MEMORIAM

Melissa Poore Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Poore, was born just south of Berlin, Jackson county, Ohio, September 11, 1848, and died in Wellston, Ohio, August 14, 1924, lacking only a few days of being 76 years old, according to the calendar, but very young in spirit and in disposition.

She was married to Mr. Thomas J. Morgan, March 24, 1875, and to this happy union two children were born, Earl C. Morgan who preceded his mother to the great beyond April 16, 1906—and Carrie Morgan Wright, wife of John M. Wright of Cincinnati who at this time is on her way from South America.

Thomas J. Morgan, the husband of whom she frequently spoke with tenderest affection, also preceded her to the Better Land November 14, 1909.

Mrs. Morgan said to Mrs. Colley and myself within the last 60 days: "I would rather live with Papa, in a log cabin, than in a Palace without him."

Today they are together again in the "House of many Mansions," At home with God.

One daughter, Mrs. Wright, and two beautiful granddaughters, and six sisters and three brothers survive her, and wait her future companionship: "Till the shadows are a little longer grown." All of the brothers and sisters live in Jackson county, which is a very rare circumstance, and are as follows: Mrs. Leonard Stephenson, Mr. Herbert Poore, Miss Minnie Poore, Miss Birdsel Poore, Mrs. W. J. Dempsey, Miss Louise Poore, Mr. James Poore, Mr. Fred Poore and Miss Oakley Poore.

Mrs. Morgan was a life long active member of the Methodist church, and was always deeply interested in its welfare. She was one of those rare characters who was too big to be spoiled by wealth, too noble to forget—that life after all is what you are, and not what one may have, and was always too magnetic a personality to be supercilious and obnoxious to the humblest person when she chanced to meet. She was too big for that! "Kind hearts are more than coronets, and simple faith than Norman Blood."

She was always like the coming of a sunbeam, and never like a February frost in your home. You felt better for her having been, and were glad she had been. If one was discouraged in anyway, she was the type of person you needed fro a friend, she acted like tonic.

She was outspoken on all great moral questions, and not a few men and women in this community have ben personally invited by her to give themselves to Jesus Christ and to identify themselves with the Church of God, if they have failed to honor her urgent plea, she did not fail to do her part.

She will be greatly missed in her home, in her church, in the community, by her loved ones, her friends, and her neighbors.

"We'll miss her as the morning dawns, And miss her as the night returns; We'll miss her here, and miss her there;

Our friend, we'll miss her everywhere."

As we all said good bye to this queenly mother in the earth life, the loved ones, and friends of other days who went to the Homeland ahead of her gave her a royal welcome, and loving greeting, and said: "Welcome Home Mrs. Morgan"! And I do not doubt, but in one of their beautiful mansions they have had a conference together about you folks of Wellston and Jackson county. Heaven is just so real to me, that I believe all of it! "Be ye also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not, the Son of Man cometh".

DR. J. R. COLLEY.

SCHOOL HOSIERY!

—AND FOR SCHOOL WEAR
For school wear there is no better stocking than Iron Clad. Every pair has strength and endurance woven in, yet there isn't the slightest suggestion of harshness, from the re-enforced heel to the close-fitting top.
We have Iron Clads in Children's sizes. We'll be glad to show them to you, for we know you'll want them for your youngsters.

A good showing of fine wearing ribbed hose, in black, brown and beaver the best school hose we have ever shown at

50c

New Sweaters

Truly a charming stock of newest sweaters—they arrived just in time for these cool days.

New Dresses

proval—silk ones, also wool ones. The wools come in plains, plaids and stripes. ones come in plains, plaids and stripes.

$10 up to $25

Tuxedo Silk Sweater Sale

These are coat style sweaters that sold up to $10.00. Sale 5.00

Warm Blankets

This week we offer lot large size beautiful heavy plaid blankets. You will like them. 4.75

Home Journal Patterns

We offer all patterns in stock at 1/2 Off special

New Dress Goods

Stylish check dress goods in good 50c

MRS. T. W. McCORMICK DIES IN GALLIPOLIS

Daughter of Late Judge Evans of This City Passes Away
Sept. 2.

Word has reached this city of the death of Mrs. Mary Elizabeth McCormick, wife of T. W. McCormick of Fairfield, Green Township, Gallia County, September 2. Mrs. McCormick died in Holzer Hospital, at Gallipolis, where she had been taking treatment for anemia for four months.

Mrs. McCormick was a daughter of the late Judge and Mrs. J. J. C. Evans of Jackson. She is survived by her husband, a son, John Halliday McCormick, a senior at West Point, two sisters, Mrs. W. E. Williams of Toledo and Mrs. Jane Phillips of Columbus, and a brother, Benson Evans, at Gilmore, Idaho.

Mrs. McCormick was a member of Fairfield Methodist church, where the funeral was held last Thursday morning by Rev. C. S. Thompson of Rodney and Rev. Curtis Smith of Gallipolis. She had been in failing health since April, 1923, and while she bore her sufferings bravely was unable to rally and regain her health.
