

Standard-Journal, Nov. 4, 1924

MRS. SCOTT DIES SUDDENLY SUNDAY

Funeral Services Held for Coalton Woman Today.

Mrs. Winfield Scott, well known Coalton lady, died suddenly Sunday morning, at the age of 70 years. Death is thought to have been due to acute indigestion.

Mrs. Scott had not been ill, and her death was a shock to her family, as well as to the community in which she lived.

She was before her marriage Miss Lucretia Stephenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Stephenson. She was born near Jackson and almost her entire life was spent in this county.

Surviving are the husband and four children, namely: Dr. F. S. Scott, Wellston; Dr. H. L. Scott, Hamilton; Loren Smith, Hamilton; Mrs. George Paige, Norfolk, Va.

Three brothers and two sisters also survive. They are: Oscar Stephenson, Jackson; Allen Stephenson, Burlington, Kans.; John Stephenson, Tampa, Fla.; Mrs. Nelia Brown, New York City; Mrs. E. W. Foster, Jackson.

Funeral services will be held from the home today, Wednesday, at 2 p. m., with Rev. Rector in charge. Interment will be made at Wellston.