OBITUARY

OLEY GAY (UMBLEBY) SIMPSON

We are called again by the reaper grim to bow in submission to his power. Another friend and neighbor loved has been called from our midst. Today as many times before we realize the power of death and the frailness of the human body. And again, we have seen faith triumph through Jesus Christ, for the departed one witnessed a good profession to the end.

Oley Gay Umbleby, daughter of Joseph and Melissa Umbleby, was born June 29, 1881, and passed from this earthly life November 16, 1924, being 43 years, 5 months and 17 days of age.

She was married to George David Simpson November 16, 1898. To them were born ten children, 7 girls and 3 boys. The girls are, Mrs. Lettie Ward of Springfield, Ohio, Mrs. Flossie Richards, Misses Marcella, Mildred, Minnie, Mary, and Edna. The three boys are, Joseph David, Orville, and James Spergeon. All the children except James Spergeon who died at the age of six months are living.

Besides these children and their father she leaves, father, mother and three grand-children.

She was the only child of her parents, and all her life was spent in Jackson and vicinity. Her marriage and death both occurred on the 16th of November and in the same house at almost the same hour. The lady who prepared the wedding dinner prepared the body for burial.

Her religious life began early as she united with the Church of Christ at the age of ten years. Later she moved her membership to the Methodist Episcopal Church in order to be with her parents, and then, when she married Mr. Simpson, her church relationship was transferred to the United Brethren Church. While she had been a member of the Church for a number of years, she did not come into the true light and experience God's saving grace in her heart until about twenty years ago in a meeting conducted by the Rev. J. W. Willis at Victory Chapel Church.

Her husband testifies to the truth and beauty of her Christian life, and her children rise up to call her blessed.

"O the hour when this material
Shell have vanished like a cloud,
When amid the wide ethereal
All the invisible shall crowd,
And the naked soul surrounded
With realities unknown,
Triumphs in the view unbounded,
Feels herself with God alone.

In the sudden, strange transition,
By what new and finer sense,
Shall she grasp the mighty vision,
And receive the influence?
Angels guard the new immortal,
Through the wonder-teeming space,
To the everlasting portal,
To the spirits resting-place.

Can I trust a fellow-being?

Can I trust an angel's care?
O thou Merciful All-seeing,
Beam around my spirit there;
Jesus, blessed Mediator,
Thou the airy path hast trod;
Thou my Judge and Consummator,
Shepherd of the fold of God.

Card of Thanks

We wish in this manner to express our sincere thanks to all those friends and neighbors who by kind deed or word helped in any way to lighten our sorrow during the illness and death of our wife and mother. We also desire to thank Rev. E. B. White for his consoling words and Funeral Director Powell for efficient services rendered.

JACKSON

'66. He was united in marriage to Florina J. Moore, in the year of 1870. To this union were born four sons and three daughters, one son preceded him in death, Vinton who died in infancy. Those surviving are Nevada of Jackson Ohio; Ozark of Hensley, W. Va., Notie of Jackson, Mich., Mrs. Fred Richards of Jackson, Ohio; Mrs. Rob Coffman of Jackson Ohio; Mrs. Albert Edmans of Jackson, Ohio.

His wife departed this life June 24, 1893. He leaves a host of relatives and friends to mourn his loss, among them three sisters, Sara Sneller, Lizzie Muye, and Matilda Kettler, all of Richmond, Ind.

"A voice is heard on earth of kinsfolks weeping the loss of one they love,

But he has gone where the redeemed are keeping a festival above.

The mourners throng the ways and from the steeple the funeral bells toll slow.

But on the golden streets the holy people are passing to and fro.

And saying as they meet, 'Rejoice, another long waited for is come,

The Savior's heart is glad, an aged father has reached the Heavenly home."
