

OAK HILL WOMAN DIES AT 75 YEARS

Mrs. Bettie Stemshorn Passes Away Mon- day.

Mrs. Bettie Stemshorn passed away at her home in Oak Hill Monday evening after an illness lasting a little over two weeks. Death was caused by heart trouble and complications.

About two years ago she suffered a severe attack of influenza, from which she never fully recovered. Her trouble was further aggravated by a fall which she received on January 13 of this year. About two weeks ago she contracted a severe cold, but later seemed to be on the road to recovery when she suffered a relapse, from which she failed to rally.

Mrs. Stemshorn was the oldest daughter of John and Ethel Schrader and was born in Baden, Germany, July 3, 1849. At the time of her death she was 75 years of age.

She was united in marriage to Henry Stemshorn, and to this union were born four sons and one daughter, namely: Fred, Will, Charles, Frank, and Emma. All are living except Charles, who was killed by a train in Ironton in 1912.

Surviving are three sons, Fred, Will, and Frank, of Oak Hill, and one daughter, Mrs. Emma Comer of Oak Hill; four sisters, Mrs. Emma Geisel of Columbus, Mrs. Kate Leach of Lorain, Mrs. Susie Hall, Martinsville, Ind., Miss Rose Schrader, Kings Mills, and one brother John Schrader of Oak Hill.

Funeral was held at the M. E. Church in Oak Hill Thursday morning, with interment in the C. M. cemetery.

WM. A. B. JONES DIES WEDNESDAY AGED 71 YEARS

Well Known Resident
Called After Long Illness.

FUNERAL FRIDAY

Active Member of the Welsh Presbyterian Church.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon for W. A. B. Jones, a well known Jackson resident who passed away early Wednesday morning after a long illness. He was 71 years of age.

Mr. Jones has lived most of his life in Jackson County, although he spent some years in Columbus, and in Pike County.

He was active in the Welsh Church and Sunday School in this city, until illness prevented his further participation in the work of the church.

Surviving are his widow, two sons, Richard and David Jones, both of Columbus; two sisters, Mrs. David L. Lloyd and Mrs. Abel Williams, of Jackson.

Rev. J. W. Matthews officiated at the funeral service, which was held in the Welsh Presbyterian Church. A male quartet, composed of John Thomas, Waldo Clark, W. E. Davis, and Glen Roush sang.

Interment was made in Fairmount by Funeral Director John Thomas.

Among the close relatives from out of town who came here for the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jones, sons Kelton and Kendall, of Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Jones and daughter Helen of Columbus; Dr. Davis of Venedocia; John Diss Davis, of Venedocia; Mr. and Mrs. Will Markham of McArthur; Mrs. Sarah Evans, of Zoar; David Lloyd and David L. Morgan, of Oak Hill.
